A Fond Farewell

On Tuesday afternoon, the whole school could be found dancing along with Mr Momanyi and Miss Linette! They began by dancing for us on the stage and before we knew it we were all joining in! Children from each class came forward to each present special gifts for them to take back to Njoro. In turn, we were presented with a very special class book for each class from the children recounting a typical day. They are full of photographs, writing and special messages. Finally, they presented us with a very special piece of artwork to represent 14 years of our partnership.

They particularly enjoyed Takeover Day, and are looking to introduce it in their school, which will be a challenge with 995 children!

Meeting Mark McPaul from the British Council gave the teachers an opportunity to share the impact of our partnership from their perspective.

On Monday, all 8 teachers from Kenya came to visit Egerton and were shown around by the Headteachers and Deputies from Takeover Day – they were really impressed and took away many ideas. That afternoon, they were welcomed at Tatton Farm by Jayne Chapman, the Farm Manager, and then visited the mansion to appreciate where our work began with the Egerton family.

Christmas in Knutsford

Our amazing choir will be singing on the main stage on Saturday 30th November at 3.40pm at the Knutsford Lights switch on. Please come along and support them if you are around. There are lots of activities going on that weekend in town and it is lovely to see so many of our families out enjoying them together.

Knutsford Christmas Bake Off is back. This year it will be at The Market Café within Knutsford Market Hall on Monday 16th December from 6pm. There is a £2 entry fee which will go direct to Knutsford Royal May Day. No rules, just make the bake festive and there is a prize for the winner in each age category (age 5-11, 12-17 and adult) and an additional prize for the overall Star Baker. To register pop into the Market Café on Tuesday to Saturday or email tmcknutsford@gmail.com

Important local news

Knutsford Police posted on twitter this week that 2 needles were found in Wallwood this week pointing to possible drug use in the area. Wallwood is opposite Laura Ashley shop and was where our eco flowers were planted before the RHS Show. Please be aware as it is an attractive place for children to access.

Mystery Reader

If you are able to give just 15 minutes at the end of a school day to be a 'mystery reader' and share your favourite story with a class that would be wonderful! The children love this. Knowing that adults enjoy children's books is such a powerful message to them. Please inform your child's class teacher or the school office if you are able.

A Message from Love Productions

The Great British Bake Off kneads you.

We're looking for a new set of Star Bakers to enter the tent for the eleventh series of The Great British Bake Off.
